

Florida's health
THE FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

UNIVERSITY OF
Miami

CDC

DEEP
Center

Behavioral Health Awareness Training for Terrorism and Disasters

Copyright © 2004: All Rights Reserved

Achieving Optimal Function in Extreme Events

Course Faculty:

Brian W. Flynn, EdD

Associate Director, Center for the Study of Traumatic Stress
Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences

Former Assistant Surgeon General,
Rear Admiral, US Public Health Service (Ret.),
Lead Federal Official for Disaster Behavioral Health, 1982-2002
Experience: Ground Zero, Oklahoma City, African Embassy Bombings, Columbine

James M. Shultz, MS, PhD

Director, Center for Disaster Epidemiology & Emergency Preparedness (DEEP Center)
Co-Director, Center for Public Health Preparedness for Hispanic Disaster Training
University of Miami School of Medicine

CDC-funded / Developed in Florida

Presented nationally: Standard curriculum for multiple states
Presented internationally: Available in both English & Spanish

Disaster Behavioral Health

Optimal healthy human functioning in community, family, and occupational roles during extreme events—disasters and acts of terrorism

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH AWARENESS TRAINING FOR TERRORISM AND DISASTERS

Date: Monday, May 16, 2005 8:30am-4:30pm (8am check-in)

Location: Community Foundation of Sarasota County*

Register: Email registration@suncoastnonprofits.org

Advance Registration Required, Deadline May 2nd

Cost: FREE (Includes continental breakfast and lunch)

Training Agenda

Behavioral Health Overview

Terrorism

Disaster

Community Response to Disaster

Stress Response in Disasters

Survivor Intervention

Self-Care Strategies

Disaster/Emergency Worker Support

Issues for Special Populations

Cross-Cultural Considerations

Sponsored Locally By

The Community Alliance of Sarasota County

&

Nonprofit Resource Center

Questions: Contact Cassie at 941.556.7104

*The Community Foundation of Sarasota County is located at 2635 Fruitville Rd., Sarasota, between Tuttle Ave. and Shade Ave. on the north side of Fruitville Rd.