

Sarasota County Area Disaster Support “Projected” Volunteer Reception Center (VRC) locations

Groups/individuals are urged to register as disaster recovery volunteers before the disaster.

Those who register early will have the opportunity to participate in specialized disaster response training. Those who have medical and other licenses and credentials will be registered in a central data base that includes placement preferences.

Call the Friendship Volunteer Center at (941) 953-5965 or log on to www.1800VOLUNTEER.ORG.

Agreements have been established with these sites. One or more of these sites will be opened after the disaster based on geographic need and staffing capabilities.

Tune into local TV or radio stations or check in local papers to find out which sites are open or call the Sarasota County Emergency Call Center at (941) 861-5000 or log on to www.scgov.net.
